

The Richmond Climax.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 17, 1897.

—Measles are becoming epidemic in many parts of the county.

—Fisher square piano and organ for sale. Apply at this office.

—J. B. Taylor returned from Lexington with stock for which he paid $400.

—Mr. Thos. Phelps sold 12 fat sheep to John F. Waggoner, Jr. on Friday last.

—Miss Temple Oldham has for sale a nice line of boy's and girl's hats selected with care.

—The CLIMAX has more than 200 more subscribers than it had Nov. 27, and still they come.

—J. W. & L. A. Ballard's boys are dying with cholera, in the Whitten Station neighborhood.

—For sale, a drop-seat survey, in perfect condition. Call on H. W. Haupt, Lancaster Avenue.

—The R. R. water tank at Whitten Station has been torn and is to be moved to Silver Creek.

—Miss Matie Bradshaw began teaching a private school at the Union City school house last Monday.

—On account of Moody's meeting, the L. & N. R. R. will not march trip tickets to Cincinnati at one fare March 18th and 19th.

—The new Baptist church in Union City will be dedicated on the fifth day in May, instead of the first as stated in one of our county papers.

—Nineteen shares of Northern Bank of Kentucky stock sold at Lexington Monday at $50.00 a share of Central Bank stock at $85.

—Some of Confederate Veterans will be in camp next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All persons interested will meet at the fair on the court house.

—Tom O'Brien, lately with K. W. Co., this city, opens a dry goods and notion store in Danville this week.

—Today at Carson, Ky., Corbett and Fitzsimmons will battle for the title championship of the world. It will be a real battle to settle it and Corbett will win.

—If any man wants to beat the CLIMAX has not the largest circulation of any paper published in Madison county—let him come forth, halloo or hail.

—Madison Co. have the greatest line of boys clothes you have ever seen and at prices that will impress you at once as the lowest of price for the good quality shown. Covington & Mitchell.

—John Davidson is making a specialty of road wagons, made at home, perfect beauties, very best, also has on hand a line of imported wagons, cheap and as good as any in the market here or elsewhere.

—The Jack Freeman residence on corner Fifth and North Street, one of the prettiest homes in Richmond, has been rented by Rev. W. H. Lloyd, who has moved thither with his family.

—On account of Nat Gooden's performance at Lexington, the L. & N. will sell round trip tickets at low rates on trains of March 18th, and special train will leave Lexington after the close of the performance.

—R. N. Beasley the tobacco buyer at Clarksville, shipped 150 hogsheads of tobacco, which he sold at a fair profit. Mr. Beasley will have about 200 hogsheads for the market next week.

—W. F. C. Tett, son of Mr. B. F. Tett, will open up a grocery store at Kirtlandville about Monday next. He will handle the usual dry line and also meat with due reverence "I will trust to God, and am sure to succeed."

—C. U. should maintain Lewis Park, of Wilmore, and he will put the shot and hammer out of sight. For he is only 17, but weighs 170 pounds, 14 feet, 10 inches tall, and very athletic. Write to George Bowerman at once.

—We don't want to get all around and get you together and "shoot" you into our store, but if you will come in and see an episode we will give you the best and most stylish to be had in this town. Covington & Mitchell.

—Curtis Coffey, the faithful expressman, had an odd moment on Monday. It is the right horse, but it was killed in East by his foot.

—J. C. Wallace, Coffey's brother-in-law, has a rabbit loan and new gift as a hood.

—Mr. H. L. Wallace, who resides in Madison, near Point Lick, had thought of running for County Superintendent of Schools, but he has relinquished the idea of making the race as the candidates are numerous enough already.

—G. J. White & Son have for sale five wauks—one pair also raised on the farm, 4 and 7 years of age, over 16 pounds, well broke and sound. One nice 6-year-old mare, "2 nice mares," more or less broken, with telephone to him, Whitten's Station.

—Every member of the Democratic County Committee is requested to meet in the grand jury room Saturday night at 1 o'clock p. m. Every candidate or prospective candidate is also urged to attend.

—JOHN B. CHERRY, Jr., O'Connell.

—Lightning struck the rock barn at H. B. Barnes on Monday last. Fortunately Mr. Barnes had removed an extra bunch of good feeders from the building before the storm, which a friend says is evidence of his foresight and wisdom as a weather prophet.

—Farm tenant, share rent, feed clover hay for corn, 20 or 25 bushels. Max can have team and live in a 3-room log cabin. A good chance for a reliable tenant, talk, this, Kirtlandville, take Barnes' Mill Pike.

—ROBERT LONG, Covington & Mitchell, Ky.

—It is a quoted question which depends, in price, the cheapest. It is lower how you are situated, with each individual to decide that type. But all are interested when it comes to knowing the value of the dollar. What we will prove is that we will give you the best value for the money you have to invest. We are now showing the best line of men's and boys' clothing and other things they want that we have ever shown and all at the very lowest prices. (Covington & Mitchell).

—Mr. James C. Hutchins sold his fine residence at Lexington, for $200.
